A plea for a safe return....

It was lovely to see all the children back and we are very pleased that we made the decision to have half the children in yesterday and the other half today, in order to ease the children back into school, but also to test out arrangements.

On Monday when all the children return, we will stick to the details in the letter sent out via ParentMail last Friday 26th February, summarised below:

- Only one adult will be allowed on the school site;
- Adults are politely asked to wear a face covering on site, as well as to follow our one-way system, as before;
- Arrival and departure times are to be staggered and prompt arrival and departure at their allocated time and location as below;
- Families with siblings can all arrive at the time of the first child due, but please note that all siblings will now exit with their own class;
- Children can bring - packed lunch, healthy snack, drink, reading books and diaries;
- Children should not bring - mobile phone, pencils, pens, etc;
- No parents/carers in the school building, please speak to a staff member out front or e-mail parent@sandfordhill.org.uk .
- Only medicines with a care plan. If in doubt speak to the office.

Be assured, we are constantly reviewing these arrangements and we do very much appreciate your support and patience in following them, as we do our best to keep us all safe. We look forward to seeing you all on Monday morning.

If your child or anyone in your household is displaying any coronavirus symptoms, please keep your child at home and inform the school as soon as possible.

Health and Wellbeing

World Book Day

World Book Day yesterday was the perfect opportunity to celebrate some of our favourite books and their characters, and to hear about the books that children across the school have most enjoyed reading too. Whilst it is really important that children read books that challenge them, it is equally as important that they read books that they enjoy. From what we see at school, children love nothing more than talking about a story that they have read and explaining what they like and didn't like about it. The Puffin Books YouTube channel has lots of excellent books being read aloud which children may find enjoyable (link below). Puffin Books Youtube channel

Red Nose Day is Back!

On Friday 19th March we will be taking part in Red Nose Day by:

1. The children coming into school in dressing up super-hero clothes/non-uniform for a small donation;
2. Selling Red Noses via the ParentMail shop.

RED
DAY

FUNNY
IS POWER

FRIDAY 19 MARCH

Grab your backpacks and a sense of adventure, we're off to the Great Outdoors to meet this year's Noses. This woodland crew has got all sorts of fun and games lined up for Red Nose Day 2021.

CHIEF

Usually found telling stories by the campfire, this wise old Nose is branching out with a sponsored silence.

ROBIN

A little birdie told us that this aerial daredevil is selling tickets, then taking off for some swooper-duper stunts.

SNAIL

It'll be a marathon not a sprint for this slow-moving mollusc, who's planning a sponsored slide around the garden.

BADGER

This brilliant Nose was always in the top sett at school and is hosting a brain-teasing quiz for the critters.

FOX

An adventurer and Badger's bestie, this friendly forager is off in search of snacks to sell at the quiz.

CATERPILLAR

If there's one thing this creative Nose knows all about, it's high-flying transformation, so bring on superhero fancy dress day.

LADY B

Tuning up for a talent show turn, this musical maestra will hit all the right notes to raise lots of cash.

DAISY

This twinkle-toed Nose has been practising pliés and perfecting pirouettes for a 24-hour ballet danceathon.

TOMMY

This cheeky little joker will be telling rib-tickers at the talent show – though hopefully no actual side-splitters.

GOLD TOMMY

ULTRA RARE
GOLD EDITION

There's a 1 in 800 chance you'll ketchup with this Nose.

COME AND PICK YOUR NOSE

Where?

Buy your Red Nose from the ParentMail shop.

When?

From 4:00pm 26th February - 9:00am Thursday 18th March

Noses sell for £1.50 each and at least 75p goes to Comic Relief to help transform lives in the UK and internationally.
